Tucked away on nearly 6 private acres off a paved county road, this charming Cape Cod Home offers the best of North Idaho living - serene, wooded surroundings, mature trees, and a southern exposure that fills every room with natural light. White-tailed deer, wild turkey, and other wildlife are regular visitors to the property, making every season feel like a front-row seat to nature. Step across the road and you're at Stoneridge Golf Course and Lake San Souci, with walking trails just minutes away. Despite the peaceful, secluded feel, you're never far from convenience - the private driveway connects directly to a paved county road, giving you easy year-round access without sacrificing the quiet rural setting that makes this place special. Inside, the thoughtfully designed 1,872 sq ft layout features main-level living with 3 bedrooms, 2 full baths, and a flexible den/office that easily serves as a 4th bedroom. A cozy wood-burning stove anchors the living space, making winter nights as comfortable as summer mornings on the covered porch. Outside, a 2-car detached garage, and a log storage building provide ample room for tools, toys, and firewood. Built in 2003, this is a property that invites you to slow down and stay awhile.
